Inquire & Explore (Big Question)

After review your mentor (example) text “What Women Really Do in the Bathroom,” think about the different parts (not just paragraphs of the essay.) What is the writer doing? What is he trying to do?

Part 1:

Part 2:

Part 3:

Now, following the example used in class (and using your mentor text as a frame or guide for yours) create an essay that wrestles with a “Big Question.” It needs to closely follow the example text in form and length. You may use some of its sentences as starter sentences for your own writing.
